The club officers have heard many times from the tobacco gifts sent over by The Sun with the money collected at this party and these recent letters will come as a surprise until they remember that the men in the Army of Occupation often write back in HARMON, John H., Eureka Springs (WS).

Army of Occupation often write back in acknowledgment of presents received six months or a year before when they had neither time nor convenience to write.

Here is another proof of the wide range taken by the smoke fund in its travels. It comes from Private A. E. Kendrick of the Composite Battalion at Malta, who writes to R. L. Lloyd: "I have received the cigarettes which were sent to France to my brother who is serving with the United States Army I am serving with the British army ai-T am serving with the British army al-though I am an American citizen and my home is in Boston. The address is 557 Columbus avenue. I must thank you for the cigarettes, which I do heartily, and I must also explain that I should not have received them except that when my brother started back to the States for his discharge he thought of me and sent them on. They were very heartily welcome, I assure you, and tender you my best thanks."

The Texas and Oklahoma boys, who sion, are jubilant over the expectation of soon starting back home. They have

SING SING 93 YEARS OLD.

Warden Celebrates by Forbidding Smoking Within Prison Shops. Smoking Within Prison Shops.

Sing Sing prison was 93 years old yesterday. The only unusual event of the day was the issuance of an order by Warden Edward V. Brophy prohibiting smoking in the prison workshops and other buildings within the walled enciosure. On May 15, 1826, Capt. Elam Lynde, the first Sing Sing warden, landed with 100 convicts from Auburn prison from secws at what is now the site of the prison, and began building the cell block still in use and other prison structures. Ever since then prisoners have been confined there.

Warden Brophy's new anti-smoking order is issued as a safeguard against fire. Inmates hereafter will be allowed to smoke only in the yard during recreto smoke only in the yard during recreation and in the cell block and dormitory after they are locked in. Smoking will not be permitted in the factories, offices, mess hall or other places.
